ARCO MADRID 2016

Booth 9B02 - 24th - 28th February 2016

View of the installation, Biennial of Moscow, 6th edition, 2015

For its fourth participation to ARCO Madrid, Jérôme Poggi is pleased to dedicate a whole booth to the work of Babi Badalov, Azri artist born in 1959. Simultaneously, Le Palais de Tokyo in Paris will present a solo show of his work, entitled For the wall, for the world, from 19th February to 11th September 2016.

Born in 1959 in Lerik (Azerbaïdjan). Lives and Works in Paris.

Babi Badalov's practice is a constant exploration of the limits of the language. He is particularly interesting in the way that language is able to isolate individuals from the people who don't share the same language. Thereby, the artist covers current geo-political topics that echoes his own personal experiences.

After having lived in Russian, he tried to settle in Cardiff (UK), but his asylum application was refused. Sent back in Azerbaijan, he finally got the right to stay and live in France in 2011. Great traveler and poet himself, Babi Badalov often introduces his own texts in his work : by combining it with manipulated political pictures, he creates installations, objects, paintings and happenings that he used to qualified as « visual poetry ».

Several Babi Badalov's artworks are part of international public collections such as Russian Museum in St. Petersburg (Russia), MuHKA Museum Contemporary Art Antwerp, Azerbaijan State Museum of Art in Baku (Azerbaijan), Kunstmuseum of Emden (Germany), Martigny Art Museum (Switzerland), Oetcker Collection in Bielefeld (Germany), Arina Kowner Collection in Zurich (Switzerland) and Zimmerli Art Museum (New Jersey, USA).

The Jérôme Poggi Gallery essentially carries out a task of prospection orientated towards young contemporary creation but also toward those figures already recognized, even historical, for whom it supports the process of recognition as much in economical as in critical and historical spheres.

The Gallery was founded by Jérôme Poggi in 2009, and is originally based near Gare du Nord in Paris. The Gallery has opened a new space in Le Marais Paris, next to the Centre Pompidou.

Jérôme Poggi is also director of «Societies», a production and studies facility created in 2004, to make art appear within the society through private and public commissions as part of the New Patrons initiated by La Fondation de France.
